

When there has been heavy snow but the school remains open, access will be restricted to the gates marked on the map below. Please ensure that you stay on the cleared pathways that will have been gritted and ask your child to wipe their feet on the mats as they enter to reduce the amount of water on the floor.

